Bird Marella Wins Securities Firm of the Year at Benchmark Litigation 2019 US Awards

Bird Marella was recently named the California “Securities Firm of the Year” at the Benchmark Litigation 2019 US Awards. Held on March 14th at The St. Regis San Francisco, the ceremony recognized the country’s most distinguished litigators and their respective firms. In addition to being recognized for its securities litigation practice, Bird Marella was also nominated for “Los Angeles Firm of the Year.” The selection process for nominees involved a six-month research period of extensive interviews with litigators, clients, and an examination of casework to identify leading attorneys and firms.
