Ekwan Rhow Named a Top 100 Lawyer by Daily Journal

Principal Ekwan Rhow has been recognized as a Top 100 Lawyer in California by the Daily Journal. The annual publication profiles the top attorneys in the state who have made extraordinary contributions to the law and society.

Mr. Rhow's profile spotlights his highly publicized settlement representing a national class that alleged data privacy claims against social media giant TikTok. The Journal also notes Mr. Rhow's extensive defendant-side litigation practice by discussing his copyright-infringement defense victory for international K-pop phenomenon BTS and their billion-dollar media company HYBE.

Mr. Rhow's other recent victories include obtaining dismissal of a federal class action brought against Hyundai Motor America and winning a $100 million five-week JAMS arbitration for a California bank.

The recognition from the Daily Journal adds to Mr. Rhow's list of honors, including his Chambers USA ranking for Litigation: General Commercial and his induction into the prestigious American College of Trial Lawyers.
