Timothy B. Yoo Named a Top Intellectual Property Lawyer by the Daily Journal for the Second Consecutive Year

Principal Timothy B. Yoo has been recognized on the Daily Journal's list of Top Intellectual Property Lawyers for the second year in a row.

Mr. Yoo's Daily Journal profile discusses his successful representation of Korean-based entertainment and media companies and groups, including global K-pop sensation BTS and their record label, HYBE Corporation. The piece also highlights Mr. Yoo's defense victory on behalf of some of Korea's largest media companies – Kakao Entertainment, Genie Music, NHN Bugs, TJ Media, Keum Young, MBC, and TV Chosun – in a copyright-infringement lawsuit concerning the works of composer Jae-Ho Lee.

Since his first recognition in the Daily Journal's Top IP Lawyers list in 2022, Mr. Yoo has been named one of the 500 Leading Litigators in America by Lawdragon and selected as a "Legal Visionary" by the Los Angeles Times B2B Publishing's Business of Law Magazine. Korea's top legal newspaper, The Legal Times, also touted Mr. Yoo's recent wins in their profile of Bird Marella in its elite guide of "Best Law Firms" for Korean companies.
