About the Firm

Overview

Bird, Marella, Rhow, Lincenberg, Drooks, & Nessim, LLP is a national litigation boutique that handles complex civil and white-collar criminal litigation and investigations.

We are trial lawyers recognized for our successful work across a wide variety of industries, often in high-stakes matters resulting in industry-changing trial verdicts and precedent-setting appeals. Our clients' matters are often complex and frequently involve multiple forums and parallel civil and criminal actions.

The firm represents national and multinational corporations, government agencies, closely held companies, partnerships, and individuals, and takes on certain business contingency matters on a selective basis. Our attorneys litigate and try cases in federal and state courts across the country and in numerous alternative dispute resolution forums.

Chambers and Partners, internationally regarded as one of the primary arbiters of achievement in the legal profession, has consistently recognized Bird Marella as a premier law firm in Chambers USA. The firm has earned practice rankings in the selective Band 1 group of Litigation: White-Collar Crime & Government Investigations, Litigation: General Commercial: The Elite, and Media & Entertainment: Litigation.
