BIRD MARELLA LLP
BIRD • MARELLA • RHOW • LINCENBERG • DROOKS • NESSIM

Grant P. Rigdon

Associate

grigdon@birdmarella.com

310.201.2100

Practices:

Intellectual Property, Complex Business Litigation, Civil Litigation

---

Grant P. Rigdon is an associate at Bird Marella. He focuses his practice primarily on complex civil litigation and intellectual property matters with an emphasis on patent infringement litigation.

Prior to joining Bird Marella, Grant was an associate at Kirkland & Ellis LLP in its Los Angeles office, where he worked in the firm's intellectual property litigation group. Before practicing law, Grant was a Design Engineer with Chevron at its El Segundo oil refinery, where he managed and provided engineering design for complex projects involving pumps, heat exchangers, pressure vessels, piping, and more.

Grant received his J.D. from UCLA School of Law, where he graduated Order of the Coif. While in law school, he served as president of UCLA's Intellectual Property Law Association and was a writing advisor for the Legal Research and Writing Program.

He received two undergraduate degrees from the University of California, Los Angeles: his B.S. in Mechanical Engineering and his B.A. in Economics in 2016.

Education & Admissions

- UCLA School of Law, J.D., 2022
- University of California, Los Angeles, Bachelor of Science, Mechanical Engineering & Bachelor of Arts, Economics, 2016

- California, 2022

Notable Matters

Representative Matters at Previous Firm

Represented Finch Therapeutics and the University of Minnesota in a patent infringement action brought by Ferring Pharmaceuticals and Rebiotix in the District of Delaware concerning gut microbiome products. Achieved a favorable jury verdict and over $25M in compensatory damages.

Represented Intel in a patent infringement action brought by PACT in the District of Delaware concerning various computer processor technologies.

Represented a leading healthcare technology company and its affiliates in a breach of contract/royalty agreement action brought by a consulting surgeon. Achieved a favorable settlement.

Represented a surgeon plaintiff in a breach of contract/royalty agreement action against a leading healthcare technology company. Achieved a favorable settlement following arbitration.

Represented two leading computer technology and software companies in a patent infringement action in the Eastern District of Texas and Northern District of California concerning software products and services.

Represented a global pharmaceutical company in numerous patent infringement actions brought in the District of Delaware against multiple generic pharmaceutical product companies.

Represented, along with the ACLU of Southern California, a group of Orange County, California residents who stayed in homeless shelters operated by Orange County and the city of Anaheim in a lawsuit alleging sex-based discrimination and harassment, policies that restrict freedom of movement, substandard living conditions and retaliation for alerting authorities of problems at the shelters.