BIRD MARELLA LLP

BIRD • MARELLA • RHOW • LINCENBERG • DROOKS • NESSIM

Legal Services

Bird Marella is a nationally recognized litigation boutique representing corporations, executives, municipalities, and institutions in the most consequential disputes across the country. From complex commercial cases to high-profile government investigations, our attorneys bring trial-tested skill, strategic depth, and unmatched commitment to every matter we handle.

Bird Marella's reputation rests on results achieved when it matters most — in the courtroom. Named one of the nation's premier boutique litigation firms by The American Lawyer, recognized by Chambers and Partners as one of the best litigation firms in California and the country, and honored by Benchmark Litigation for impact cases of national significance, we bring a record of landmark verdicts and precedent-setting outcomes to every new engagement.

Our dual capability in civil and white collar matters is a distinct advantage in cases involving parallel government and private actions — a common dynamic in securities, health care, and regulatory disput