

Trials

Bird Marella is internationally recognized for its trial victories, many of which were subject to tremendous media attention or involved multimillion-dollar values.

Overview

Its trial, litigation, and arbitration specialists regularly succeed in navigating complex, precedent-setting, and even cross-border disputes. Bird Marella partners are named among the top and most respected trial attorneys in the nation. Several of them are Fellows of the American College of Trial Lawyers (the highest honor for trial lawyers because the selection is made by federal judges, state judges, and peers, and admission is limited to less than one percent of the candidates in any particular region).

Many of Bird Marella's landmark trial wins have been recognized by publications and legal
