

Bird Marella Named to Daily Journal's 2018 Top Boutiques

Bird Marella has been named among California's 2018 "Top Boutiques" by the Daily Journal, highlighting the firm's recent successes litigating high profile matters in the practice areas of white collar, civil litigation, and entertainment. The supplement issue recognizes 20 specialty firms based on richness of history in respective practice areas, current book of cases, and overall growth in recent years.

This marks the third time Bird Marella has been recognized with this award, having previously been recognized in 2017 and 2014.

Click here to read the full issue.