

Bird Marella Recognized by Benchmark Litigation 2019

Bird Marella is pleased to announce the firm has been recognized as a Recommended Litigation Law Firm in California and ranked in Tier 1 for Securities by Benchmark Litigation. Principals Gary Lincenberg, Ron Nessim, Ekwan Rhow, and Dorothy Wolpert were also recognized as Local and California Litigation Stars, and Principal Benjamin Gluck received a Local Litigation Star honor.

Benchmark Litigation is the definitive guide to America's leading litigation firms and attorneys, and is the only publication to focus exclusively on US litigation. Firms recognized are those that are consistently recommended by peers and clients during Benchmark Litigation's selection process. The list of "local litigation stars" for each state reflects only those individuals who were recommended consistently as reputable and effective litigators by clients and peers.

For more information, click here.