

Daily Journal Recognizes Bird Marella Among California's Top Boutiques

Bird Marella is proud to announce that it was named a California top boutique law firm for 2017 by the Daily Journal. The Daily Journal last recognized top boutiques in 2014 and Bird Marella was listed at that time as well.

The Daily Journal highlights Bird Marella's keys to success which include a wealth of front-line trial and litigation experience, an extensive record of wins in both jury trials and arbitrations, and the firm's commitment to supporting its younger generation of attorneys. The feature also covers Bird Marella's ongoing significant representations including for the creator and producers of "The Walking Dead" cable television franchise against AMC Networks in what might be the largest profit participation dispute in TV history; multiple defendants in the 1MDB investigation, a case being pursued by the U.S. Department of Justice with billions of dollars of assets at stake; and for a Fortune 150 company in defense against charges filed by the California Attorney General's Office in connection with a Santa Barbara oil spill.

Click here to read the full article.