

Julia Cherlow Recognized in Los Angeles Business Journal's Leaders of Influence: Litigators & Trial Attorneys List

Partner Julia Cherlow is named to the Los Angeles Business Journal's 2025 list of Leaders of Influence: Litigators & Trial Attorneys.

The Los Angeles Business Journal recognizes Ms. Cherlow as one of the most sought-after trial attorneys in complex, high-stakes litigation – known for her surgical cross-examinations, strategic command, and relentless trial focus.

She secured a landmark jury win for healthcare apparel brand FIGS, defeating a nine-figure false advertising claim, and is currently preparing for a potentially nine-figure jury trial in Reno on behalf of a medical group and affiliated hospital. A seasoned first-chair advocate, she has led multiple confidential arbitrations and is highly regarded for her work in entertainment litigation, representing A-list talent and major industry players in complex compensation and profit participation disputes. She has earned accolades from Variety, The Hollywood Reporter, and the Daily Journal for her courtroom victories and litigation leadership.

View the full issue here.