Kimberly Meyer Named a Law360 Rising Star in Media & Entertainment

Bird Marella attorney Kimberly Meyer has been named a Law360 Rising Star, an honor only five attorneys received nationally in the Media & Entertainment category.

Ms. Meyer specializes in entertainment, intellectual property, and gaming litigation. Notably, she played a pivotal role in representing Scarlett Johansson in a groundbreaking lawsuit that alleged Disney interfered with Ms. Johansson's contract to star in the Marvel film Black Widow. Ms. Meyer was also a member of the team that won the largest award in the history of profit participation arbitrations on behalf of Emily Deschanel and David Boreanaz, the stars of the long-running hit TV show Bones, and author-producer Kathleen Reichs, against 21st Century Fox. Ms. Meyer works on several confidential matters concerning cutting-edge issues in the entertainment industry alongside principal John Berlinski.
