Kimberly Meyer Named to Daily Journal Top 40 Under 40 List

Partner Kimberly Meyer is named to the Daily Journal's Top 40 Under 40 list, which honors exceptional lawyers throughout California under the age of 40 who have made their mark on the legal industry.

The Daily Journal notes Ms. Meyer's successful representation of film and television talent in their most significant disputes, including matters concerning artificial intelligence, profit participation claims, and intellectual property.

In her profile, Ms. Meyer discusses her role in Bird Marella's representation of actor-producer Scarlett Johansson in a dispute against OpenAI and its CEO, Sam Altman, in which OpenAI was accused of appropriating Ms. Johansson's voice for use in its ChatGPT system.

Ms. Meyer continues to specialize in AI-related disputes while pursuing a Master of Studies in AI Ethics and Society from the University of Cambridge and serving an integral role in Bird Marella's AI Committee. She has earned national recognition from Variety in their highly regarded Legal Impact Report and won Law360's Rising Star Award for Media and Entertainment.
