Tom Freeman and David Chao Among Public Counsel Pro Bono Award Honorees

Bird Marella attorneys Tom Freeman and David Chao were among the select few of recipients awarded the Public Counsel 2015 Pro Bono Award. The award honors those who have gone above and beyond in generously dedicating their time to ensure justice for the most vulnerable in the community.

Both Mr. Freeman and Mr. Chao were honored for their work with Public Counsel's Appellate Law Program, which helps self-represented litigants better represent themselves in their civil matters, and provides pro bono representation in selected cases.
