Bird Marella Wins Complete Dismissal of Criminal Healthcare Fraud Case

Principals Benjamin Gluck and Nicole Rodriguez Van Dyk, along with associate Naomi Solomon, won the dismissal of a criminal healthcare fraud complaint after five years of litigation.

The Orange County District Attorney's Office charged a chiropractor, a medical doctor, and two managers with dozens of felonies, alleging insurance fraud and kickbacks.

The Bird Marella team discovered that the prosecution had mishandled the evidence and invaded the attorney-client privilege, leading to the complete dismissal for all defendants.

Bird Marella's client stated, "I am deeply relieved, and I can start to really live my life again. Retaining [Bird Marella] was the best decision I ever made."
