Oliver Rocos

Oliver Rocos has been an associate at the firm since 2019 and has played a key role on several winning trial teams. He focuses on prosecuting and defending complex commercial and civil disputes for companies and high-net-worth individuals, as well as securities and class actions. Oliver has extensive trial experience, having previously practiced as a barrister in the United Kingdom. His skills have earned him recognition as one of the Best Lawyers in America: Ones to Watch and earned him the American Civil Liberties Union's Humanitarian Award.
