

A. Howard Matz Speaks at California Lawyers Association Litigation Summit

Senior Counsel A. Howard Matz was a featured panelist at the 2019 California Lawyers Association (CLA) Litigation Summit. Matz participated in the panel discussion “Access to Justice,” moderated by California Deputy Attorney General Chad Stegeman. The panel discussed the many barriers that discourage or prevent would-be litigants to engage the justice system and potential solutions to better provide access to justice for those in need.

For more information on the 2019 CLA Litigation Summit, click here.