

A. Howard Matz to Speak at PLI Law and Regulation of Intermediary Businesses Conference

Bird Marella Senior Counsel A. Howard Matz will be a featured speaker at the 2014 PLI Law and Regulation of Intermediary Businesses Conference, and will participate in the panel discussion "Practical Litigation Issues for Intermediary Businesses," at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 5.

The panel will discuss strategies of litigating immunities and safe harbors, litigating the cuttingedge case, dealing with government agencies, and effective litigation management.

The PLI Law and Regulation of Intermediary Businesses Conference will take place on November 5 at the PLI California Center in San Francisco, California.

For more information, click here.