BIRD MARELLA LLP

BIRD • MARELLA • RHOW • LINCENBERG • DROOKS • NESSIM

Bird Marella Elevates Ashley Bowman to Partner

Bird Marella is proud to announce the elevation of Ashley D. Bowman to partner, effective January 1, 2024.

A Stanford Law School and Yale University graduate, Ms. Bowman focuses her practice on complex civil litigation, as well as representing corporate and individual clients in contract disputes, intellectual property and consumer protection disputes, executive compensation matters, and white collar investigations. She brings a breadth of experience and years of success, including winning jury and federal bench trials and dispositive summary judgment motions, in a range of litigation matters.

Managing Partner Paul Chan shared, “Ashley has consistently been an integral part of the firm’s success. Her leadership, grace, and intellect are assets to clients and she will further solidify our next generation at Bird Marella. We’re thrilled to welcome her to the firm’s partnership.”