

Bird Marella Elevates Gopi Panchapakesan to Principal

Bird Marella is proud to announce the elevation of Gopi K. Panchapakesan to principal, effective January 1, 2020. Since joining the firm as an associate in 2014, Panchapakesan has established a successful practice focused on the litigation and arbitration of complex business disputes. He has particular expertise defending clients in civil RICO and class action matters.

"I am honored to be part of a firm that, for nearly four decades, has been defined by excellence both inside and outside the courtroom," said Panchapakesan. "Bird Marella has always been committed to developing the next generation of leaders. I look forward to contributing to the firm's success in the years to come."

Panchapakesan has successfully represented publicly-traded and privately-held companies alike in high-stakes matters. He has experience representing clients involved in a wide variety of industries, including apparel, consumer products, multi-level marketing, pharmaceutical, real estate, and technology.

Managing Principal Paul S. Chan added, "Gopi is an outstanding attorney who represents clients with a rare combination of legal skills and practical judgment. He will be a leader among our next generation of principals who embody the future of our firm."
