

Bird Marella Named Top Boutique by Daily Journal

Bird Marella has been named among California's top boutiques by the Daily Journal.

The special issue featured twenty of California's leading law firms. The piece highlights Bird Marella's multigenerational group of trial lawyers, as well as the firm's expertise in litigating high stakes matters ranging from complex civil commercial disputes to white collar cases and investigations.

The article discusses some of Bird Marella's most recent high-profile matters, including the representation of Brad Pitt in multi-jurisdictional litigation involving Chateau Miraval against Angelina Jolie, its achievements on behalf of Lauren Sanchez and Jeff Bezos in their defamation suit against Michael Sanchez, and its complete defense verdict in a three-week trial for FIGS.

"There's no other L.A. firm that's been able to achieve the generational development we have. Looking ahead to the next generation has always been part of our dynamic."

– Founding principal Terry Bird

This year's recognition marks the fourth time the Daily Journal has recognized the firm in its annual Top Boutiques list. Bird Marella was also recently named one of seven finalists for The American Lawyer's National Boutique/Specialty Litigation Firm of the Year Award, marking yet another major recognition for the firm.

Click here to view the article in its entirety.

View the firm's profile on the Daily Journal's website here (subscription required).