

Bird Marella Names Nicole Rodriguez Van Dyk as its Newest Principal

Bird Marella is proud to announce the elevation of Nicole Rodriguez Van Dyk to principal. Since joining the firm as an associate in 2012, Mrs. Van Dyk has successfully established a practice focused on civil and criminal matters for business and health care professionals.

"I am honored to be a part of a firm with a reputation for integrity and excellence both inside and outside the courtroom," said Mrs. Van Dyk. "Bird Marella has a strong history of top-notch legal work, a deep commitment to diversity, and meaningful service to the community. I am proud to continue that tradition."

A significant portion of Mrs. Van Dyk's practice is devoted to the representation of health care providers in state and federal criminal investigations and prosecutions, and parallel civil proceedings. She has successfully defended clients in a variety of related areas, including workers' compensation fraud, false billing, improper referrals, compound medications, and physician-owned distributorships.

Principal Benjamin Gluck added, "I've had the pleasure of working with Nicole for a number of years. One doesn't often see someone who has the level of skills and commitment that she brings to each case. No issue is too big or too small for her scrutiny and her clients reap the benefits of her formidable abilities."
