

Bird Marella Names Timothy Yoo as its Newest Principal & Welcomes Five New Associates

Bird Marella is proud to announce the elevation of Timothy Yoo to Principal, and the addition of five dynamic new Associates: Ashley Bowman, Julian Burns, Kimberley Miller, Andrew Moshirnia, and Fanxi Wang.

The elevation of Tim and the addition of five new attorneys demonstrate the continued success of the firm whose masthead spans three generations of practicing lawyers.

“Bird Marella’s deep bench strength is only furthered by Tim’s promotion,” said Managing Principal Paul Chan. “He is a talented and effective lawyer and a wonderful person to work with, and we look forward to practicing together with him in this new role as he continues to rack up accomplishments for our clients.”

“The newly-hired associates reflect the best of what makes us a distinctive firm, including great education, incredible intellectual talent, and wide diversity of experience,” said Terry Bird, a founding member of Bird Marella. “We are thrilled they have joined our team of exceptional litigators.”

Click here to read the full press release.