

Bird Marella Principal Benjamin Gluck and Associate Alexander H. Tran Win Dismissal of Criminal Complaint

Alexander Tran argued and won a motion to dismiss a criminal complaint alleging failure to report suspected elder abuse. In a matter of first impression, Mr. Tran convinced the Court that the statute of limitations cannot be extended in cases of intentional concealment of suspected abuse. This ruling helps bring certainty to mandated reporters across California.

At Bird Marella, associates take on substantive roles early in their career, drafting, arguing motions, and playing critical roles on trial teams. Bird Marella continues to hire exceptional civil litigation and white collar-focused associates.
