Ekwan Rhow and Ariel Neuman Again Honored Among Top 100 Lawyers in California

Partners Ekwan Rhow and Ariel Neuman are again recognized in the Daily Journal's list of Top 100 Lawyers in California.

The Daily Journal features Mr. Rhow's historic trial victory for Saint Mary's Medical Group, in which he led the trial team to secure an award of more than $510 million, one of the largest verdicts in healthcare litigation history. Having built a national trial practice, he also discusses the importance of developing the firm's attorneys through substantial, hands-on trial experience as he prepares for a busy slate of trials in the year ahead while being at the forefront of impactful data privacy litigation.

The profile of Mr. Neuman highlights his trial practice across both civil and white-collar criminal matters, noting his position as lead trial counsel for multi-firm teams representing key players across a variety of industries. He discusses the culture of Bird Marella and the influence his partners had on his success, and how he intends to help maintain the firm's profile as one of the nation's premier trial boutiques.

Mr. Rhow and Mr. Neuman are repeat honorees for the Daily Journal's Top 100 Lawyers and Leading Commercial Litigators lists. They are also both Fellows of the American College of Trial Lawyers and top-ranked in Chambers USA.
