

John Berlinski, Julia Cherlow and Kimberly Meyer Named to Variety's Legal Impact Report

Bird Marella partners John Berlinski, Julia Cherlow, and Kimberly Meyer have again been recognized by leading entertainment publication, Variety, for their successful representation of A-list clients and impressive record in precedent-setting cases that have shaped the modern legal landscape in entertainment. Additionally, the firm's expertise in AI-related litigation enables it to remain at the forefront of the legal and entertainment industries, adeptly navigating the evolving challenges posed by AI.

Variety's Legal Impact Report is highly regarded in the entertainment industry, honoring the top litigators and dealmakers in film, television, music, and sports.

Click here to view the full issue.