

Michael Freedman to Speak at ABA Annual National Institute on White Collar Crime

Bird Marella attorney Michael Freedman will moderate a panel at the American Bar Association's 29th Annual National Institute on White Collar Crime in New Orleans on March 4, 2015.

Entitled "Practical Trial Tips from the Frontlines," the panel will feature attorneys from around the country discussing practical advice for use in prosecuting and defending white-collar cases before and during trial. Freedman currently serves as National Co-Chair of the Younger Lawyers Subcommittee of the ABA's White Collar Crime Committee and will also be publishing two articles in the National Institute's course materials.

For more information, click here.