

Naeun Rim Participates in CLE Webinar Discussing COVID-19's Impact on White Collar Litigation

Principal Naeun Rim participated in the CLE webinar panel discussion, "Tips and Trends: The Impact of COVID-19 on White Collar Litigation and Investigations," on April 15 at 11:00 am PT.

Hosted by the Women's White Collar Defense Association, the Federal Bar Association, and FTI Consulting, the webinar focused on tips and trends in representing white collar clients in the age of the coronavirus and statewide stay-at-home orders. Topics discussed included pretrial and post-conviction release, remote representation, and predictions as to how recent events will affect fraud prosecutions, antitrust and SEC actions, and more.

To view a recording of the webinar, click here.

To view presentation materials: click here for the PowerPoint and here to download the handouts.