

Paul Chan to Speak at Bridgeport's 2020 Consumer Class Action Conference

Managing Principal Paul Chan will be a featured panelist at Bridgeport's Annual Consumer Class Action Conference on January 10 in Costa Mesa, CA. Chan will co-present on the topic "The Use of BP 17200 in CA Class Actions" at 11:10 am.

Bridgeport's Annual Consumer Class Action Conference explores the ever-changing landscape of consumer class actions. The 2020 program will include a review of cases currently pending in the Ninth Circuit and Supreme Court, in addition to discussions on the future of class action litigation, best practices, and several notable topics in the scope of consumer class actions.

To register or for more information, please click here.