

William Johnston Outlines Legal Strategy for Tackling Employee Embezzlement in Daily Journal Article

In an article for the Daily Journal titled, “From discovery to recovery: A legal roadmap for employee embezzlement cases,” partner William Johnston offers a practical guide for California businesses navigating the aftermath of employee embezzlement.

Far from being a lost cause, Mr. Johnston argues that with swift, strategic legal action, companies can often reclaim stolen funds and reinforce internal accountability. His article explores recovery strategy in the context of California law, outlines best practices, and examines the benefits and potential risks of involving law enforcement.

Read the article here.