

MARTHA LETICIA (LETTY) CAMARILLO ASSOCIATE

T 310.201.2100

F 310.201.2110

E lcamarillo@birdmarella.com

EDUCATION

University of California, Berkeley, School of Law, J.D., 2017

Weber State University, B.A., magna cum laude, 2012

OVERVIEW

Letty Camarillo joined Bird Marella as an associate in 2020. She is experienced in a variety of litigation matters including securities and environmental law.

Bilingual in English and Spanish and knowledgeable in basic Hebrew, Letty earned her J.D. from the University of California, Berkeley, School of Law, where she received Certificates of Specialization in Environmental Law and Public Interest & Social Justice. Prior to joining the firm, Letty was an associate at Morrison & Foerster, LLP in San Francisco.

PUBLICATIONS

Co-Author, "Ninth Circuit Provides Guidance on Pre-certification Discovery," Morrison & Foerster's Class Dismissed Blog, 2020

Co-Author, Realizing the Human Right to Safe, Affordable Water through a Statewide Water Affordability Program (AB 401 Implementation), UC Berkeley Environmental Law Clinic, 2017

Author, Book Review, Policing Sexuality: The Mann Act and the Making of the FBI by Jessica R. Pliley (2014), Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice, 2016

ADMISSIONS

California, 2018